CAMERON (CAM) LEWIS joined the Buffalo Bills in 2019 after a four-year career at University of Buffalo. A Michigan native, Lewis entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent to the Bills.

BASEBALL PAST

Lewis spent most of his life as a baseball standout, rather than a football star. Up until his junior year of high school, he was splitting time between baseball and football with his focus being more on baseball.

He participated in both club and school baseball, and his club team was so successful that they made it to the RBI National Championship.

"The most memorable game of my career was the RBI regional championship trying to make nationals," Lewis said. "The team was down 5 in the last inning and we rallied to win. It was played on the Cleveland Indians field."

It wasn't until his junior year of high school that his football coach, John Pittman, asked him to really give football a shot. Lewis listened and Pittman became a mentor for the high school running back turned college defensive back. He became the first player from his high school to play at a Division I school.

PERSONAL

The son of Ernest and Yvonne Lewis, Cameron has two older brothers, Ernest Jr. and Brandon. He majored in African American Studies while at Buffalo. He hopes to one day work with adoption agencies and foster homes because he believes every child should have a home.
