

JOHN EGORUGWU

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL/
ASST. LINEBACKERS

6th YEAR IN THE NFL
4th YEAR WITH THE BILLS

John Egorugwu (pronounced Ego-roo-goo) is in his fourth season in Buffalo working as a defensive quality control coach.

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

2017-present: (Bills)

- In 2018, the Bills linebackers group recorded seven interceptions and tied for most in the league with the New York Giants.
- In 2019, helped coach LB Tremaine Edmunds to his first-ever Pro Bowl. Also helped the Bills defense to finish third in the NFL, allowing only 298.3 yards per game.

2015-16: (Ravens)

- Egorugwu was a staff assistant on the defense in Baltimore, working mostly with the team's linebackers.

2015: (Missouri State)

- Hired as the wide receivers coach before leaving for a position with the Baltimore Ravens.

2012-14: (Missouri)

- Served as a defensive graduate assistant for the Missouri in 2012 before moving to a role as an offensive graduate assistant.

2010-2011: (William Jewell)

- Coached linebackers for two seasons.

COLLEGE

- Started at linebacker for four years at William Jewell College.

PERSONAL

- Attended William-Jewell College for four years, where he played linebacker, and graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting and Business/Management.
- Earned a Master's Degree in Educational and Counseling Psychology from the University of Missouri-Columbia while serving as a Graduate Assistant for the Missouri Tigers

EGORUGWU'S COACHING HISTORY

NFL

Buffalo Bills
Baltimore Ravens

2017-present
2015-16

Defensive Quality Control Coach/Asst. Linebackers
Defensive Staff Assistant

COLLEGE

Missouri State
Missouri
Missouri
William Jewell

2015
2013-14
2012
2010-11

Wide Receivers Coach
Offensive Graduate Assistant
Defensive Graduate Assistant
Linebackers